Too Beautiful to Live.

The pride and flower of all the youth of the Zoo is the young hippopotamus. As it lies on its side, with eyes half closed, its square nose like the end of a bolster tilted upward, its little fat legs stuck out straight at right angles to its stuck out straight at right ang'es to its body, and its toes turned up like a duck's, it looks like a g gantic rewborn rabbit. It has a pale, jetunia-colored stomach, and the same artistic shade adorns the soles of its feet. It | srees, for every additional degree or frachas a double chin, and its eyes, like a bull-calf's, are set on redestals, and test shall pay a duty of .02 of a cent per pound additional, and above 96 degrees by cless gently as it goes to sleep with a bland, enormous smile. It cost £500 when quite small, and, to quote the opinion of an eminent grazier, who was looking it over with a professional eye, it still looks like "growing into money." There are connoiseurs in hippopotamus breeding who think it almost too beautiful to live.—London Spectator.

"I Owe My Life To You." That is a strong statement, yet exactly what Miss Gertrude Sickler, of Wilton. N.J., has written to Mrs.

Pinkham. She says:-"I suffered terribly with suppressed painful mentions. Doctors could only keep me from having fits each month by giving me morphine. This continued until I was completely prostrated.

"My father at last got me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which at once gave me relief. It did what the doctors could not - cured me. I never have any trouble now, and have no dread of the coming month. I owe my life to you."

Sugar Is Taxed.

The Wilson tariff bill, which passed the House of Representa ites Feb. 1. was laid before the full membership of the Senate Committee on Finance Thursday morning, in the amended fo. m upon which the Democratic major.ty of that committee finally agreed after one month's consideration. The chief features are the provisions in regard to sugar, iron ore, lead, wool and its manufactures, cotton manufactures, wlisky and tobacco. The sugar provision is as follows:

All su ars, tank bottoms, syrups of caneper pound, and for every additional degree or fraction of a degree 80 and not above 9) degrees shown by the polariscope test, shall pay .01 of a cent per pound addi-tional, and above 9) and not above 96 depolariscope test shall pay a duty of 1. cents per pound; molasses testing not above 56 decrees by the polariscope shall pay a duty of 2 cents per gallon: molasses test nz above 56 degrees shall pay duty of 4 cents per gallon.

Tax on Iron. Coal, and Lead.

Iron ore, including manganiferous iron ore, also dross or residuum from burned pyrites, is taxed 40 cents per ton. Coal is taken from the free list and made dutiable also at 40 cents a ton, and coke at 15 cents. Lead ore, which in the Wilson bill was 15 per cent. ad valorem, lead ore, and lead dross are taxed three-fourths of a cent per pound, provided that silver ore and all other ores containing lead shall pay a duty of three-fourths of a cent rer pound on the lead contained therein, according to sample and assay at the port of entry.

Raw wool is left on the free list exactly as in the Wilson bill, the provision to go into effect Aug. 2, 1894. In manufactures of wool the valuations as given in the Wilson bill are stricken out, and the schedules now read as fol-

Wool of the sheep, hair of the camel, goat, alpaca, and other like animals in the form of slubbing, waste, roving waste, ring saste, munge, shoddles, garnetted. carled waste, carbonized noils, or other waste product, any of which is composed wholly or in part of wool; the hair of the camei, goat, alpaca, and other like animals, which has been improved or advanced beyond its original condition as a-te by the use of machinery or the apoot, shall be subject to a duty of 15 per centum ad valorem. On wool of the sheep, hair of the camel, goat, alpaca, or other like animals in the form of toving, roping, or tops, 25 per centum ad valorem; on woo en and worsted yarns, 30 per centum nd valorem: on woolen or worsted cloths, shawls, knit fabrics, manufactures of every description made wholly or in part of wool, worsted, the hair of the camel, goat, alpaca, or other animals and any of the alove baving India rubber as a component material, not specially pr vided for in this act, 35 per centum ad valorem, instead of 40, as in the Wilson bill.

On blankets, hats of wool, and flannels. 25 per centum ad valorem, and if valued at more than 30 cents per pound 30 per cen um ad valorem; on wempn's and childrea's dress goods, composed wholly or in part of wool, not specially provided for in this act, 35 per centum ad valorem, instead of 40: on clothing, ready-made, and articles of wearing apparel of every descrip-tion, and imitations of fur composed wholly or in part of wool, etc., 40 per centum ad valorem. Instead of 45; on webbings. vorings, suspenders, braces, beitings, bind-logs, braids, etc., 35 per centum ad valor-

Car ets remain unchanged. The reduction in the duties for manufactures of wool shall take effect Dec. 2, 1894. Off and on the Free Lis.

Articles stricken from the free list are as follows:

An Advantage of Twin Screws.

The great value of twin screws, apart from the increased speed which apart from the increased speed which they give, was shown in the case of the steamship Parls, belonging to the American Navigation Company. Al-though the rudder of the Paris was broken, she remained under control and, by the use of her twin screws, was turned about and returned to port. Such accidents are relatively rare, but when they occur it is usually in rough weather, when steering gear is most needed. The ships with twin screws have in effect a duplicate rudder, and are thereby rend red that much safer.

Haunted:

A haunted house in thes : practical and unomantic days is something of a rarity, but an individual haunted with the idea that his a'lment is incurable is a personage frequently met with. Disbelief in the ability of medicine to cure is only a mild form of monomania, although in some cases repeated failures to obtain relief from many different sources would almost seem to justify the doubt. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has demonstrated its ability to overcome dyspepsia, constipation, liver and kiddey trouble, malarial complaints and nervousness, and its recorded achievements in the curative line ought at least to warrant its trial by any one troubled with either of the shove ailments, even although his previous efforts to obtain remedial aid have been fruitless. A Story of George Sand. A discussion arose one day about the late twork of a singularly vapid and dull writer, who had, I know not how, gained t'e privilege of being intrduced to the attentive audience gathered together "autour de la table.

"There is no doubt," remarked Mme. Sand, "that all of it is not good to the rame degree, but it contains at least a description of Venice which pleases me greatly." Several of us agreed with her, albeit we were under the impression that we had already met with this descriptive piece somewhere. "Fgad, I know where " suddenly ex-claimed her son, and off he rushed to the bookshelves to get "La derniere Aldini," where, with a feeling of indignation at the plagiarist, we found the very description, which had been copied almost word for word.

"What, is this by me?" Mme. Sand repeated, astounded and startled. "I had no idea of it. After all, it is really not so bad."
